

ID physicians with at least one administrative role receive higher compensation than those without administrative roles, although compensation materially increases for those who also have quality incentives.

17%

Median Compensation

9%

Physicians with Administrative Role(s)

Physicians without Administrative Role(s)

■ Physicians with Quality Incentives

■ Physicians without Quality Incentives