

Whether the funding for incentive compensation flows directly or indirectly from value-based contracts, this is evidence that ID physicians can earn more if these value-oriented incentives are implemented.

