

An ID physician incentivized for quality tends to earn more regardless of years of experience, although the impact on compensation decreases as a physician has practiced for 21 years and longer.

