

Welcome to infectious diseases fellowship

IDSA and the Fellows Community of Practice welcome you to a national community for peer connection, learning, mentorship and professional growth. Start with the resources below and use the fellows-in-training resource hub for current opportunities.

Developed with volunteers from the Fellows Community of Practice Networking Working Group

START HERE

Three places to begin

MEMBERSHIP

Access your IDSA account

Fellows in ACGME-accredited programs receive complimentary IDSA membership through their fellowship program.

Access profile

COMMUNITY

Fellows Community of Practice

Connect with peers through MyIDSA discussions, national programming and volunteer opportunities.

Explore Fellows CoP

RESOURCE HUB

Fellows-in-training resources

Find training, education, research, career and professional development resources in one place.

Open resource hub

CONNECT, LEARN AND PARTICIPATE

Core opportunities for fellows

MENTORSHIP

iDMentorship365

Eligible fellows may apply as mentees or mentors for structured career guidance, networking and professional growth.

Explore mentorship

CONFERENCE

IDWeek and conference planning

Explore fellow-focused IDWeek opportunities and major infectious diseases meetings for clinical learning, research presentations, networking and career development.

Open conference planning guide

LEARNING

IDSA Academy

Access courses, webinars and recordings, including fellows virtual case conference sessions.

Visit IDSA Academy

ADVOCACY

Member Advocacy Program

Build advocacy skills, access learning modules, respond to action alerts and engage in policy opportunities.

Explore advocacy

LEARNING, TEACHING AND CAREER

Resources to bookmark

Bookmark the resources most relevant to your work. Dates, registration details and application windows may change; follow IDSA and MyIDSA announcements for current information.

CLINICAL GUIDANCE	Practice guidelines Evidence-based clinical guidance for patient care, rounds and teaching preparation	Browse guidelines
PODCAST	Febrile podcast Sponsored by IDSA, Febrile features expert educators discussing clinical approaches, clinical reasoning and high-yield ID topics	Listen to Febrile
TEACHING RESOURCE	ID chalk talks Brief teaching scripts and visual frameworks for common infectious diseases topics	View chalk talks Join MedEd COP
CURRICULUM	Antimicrobial stewardship curricula Core and advanced curricula for stewardship knowledge and leadership development	View curricula
ASSESSMENT	Fellows In-Training Exam Annual exam information, national performance comparison and access to the free practice exam	Review exam
CAREER RESOURCE	Jobs in ID Career exploration and current infectious diseases employment opportunities	Explore jobs

STAY CONNECTED

Community and support resources

MEMBER COMMUNITY	MyIDSA Follow Fellows Community of Practice discussions, peer questions, case conferences and national updates.	Visit MyIDSA
VOLUNTEER SERVICE	Volunteer opportunities Review periodic calls for Fellows Community of Practice working groups and other IDSA service opportunities.	View opportunities
CONTACT SUPPORT	Contact IDSA Find the appropriate contact for membership, education or general resource questions.	Contact IDSA